

ITBLG Issues in Aging

(Intersex/Transgender/Bisexual/Lesbian/Gay)

Provided by the Institute of Gerontology at Wayne State University
Presented by Area Agency on Aging

Registration begins at 8:30 am

Featuring

9:00 - 11:45AM

Speakers: Penny Gardner, PhD, Michigan State University
James W. Toy, MSW, University of Michigan

In addition to age bias, people who are intersex, transgender, bisexual, lesbian or gay face unique challenges as they grow older and require assistance from others. This interactive workshop will explore the needs and concerns of this diverse group of elders, including stigma and discrimination, legal and health-care issues, and long-term care. Participants will also challenge their own beliefs and values increasing their competency to serve this population.

OBJECTIVES

- 1) Identify concerns and challenges of optimum care provision.
- 2) Discuss sexual orientation, gender identity terms and related vocabulary.
- 3) Identify and clarify provider values.
- 4) Discuss issues of care provision and resources available.
