“Many Faces of Depression”

Dr. Peter Lichtenberg, PhD, ABPP

Director, Institute of Gerontology, Wayne State University

Dr. Lichtenberg will talk about the impact of depression on overall well-being, both physically and emotionally. With the growing number of seniors in today's society, assessment and treatment of altered mental status has become essential in the care of the aged.

1. Examine 3 theories of what causes late life depression.
2. Examine the different mechanisms that trigger depression in later life and treatment options for depression.
3. Analyze how well the DSM IV criteria for depression work for older adult depression.
